Principal's Message

Mr. Piecara

To The Class of 2000,

As I consider the previous four school years and reflect upon the accomplishments of the class of 2000 two key words come to mind: commitment and success. I believe that each member of the Class of 2000 has learned the value of personal commitment, dedicating many long hours to the accomplishment of an individual goal established many years ago, i.e. graduation from Marple Newtown Senior High School. Success, the positive completion of a personal goal or objective, is the feeling of accomplishment that you experience as you accept your diploma from high school and begin to accept the many new challenges your future has for you. With graduation rapidly approaching, I believe you have truly learned the meaning of commitment and success, and the positive relationship of one on the other.

Graduation is not an end unto itself, it is rather the beginning of another new and exciting journey. Graduation is a time when we conclude one segment of our lives and begin to accept new challenges. The object of a high school education is to prepare you to become a life long learner, promoting the successful accomplishment of future goals. Graduation is one reward which is hard earned, and for you, well deserved. Remember, however, that it is only one of many goals you have in your journey through life and much remains to be accomplished.

As you begin the next leg of your journey, remember the words of Harry S. Truman, "I studied the lives of great men and women, and I found that the men and women who got to the top were those who did the jobs they had in hand, with everything they had of energy and enthusiasm and hard work." You have the foundation necessary to be successful in life. Mix in hard work, commitment and dedication and you will accomplish the many goals you have set for yourself.

I wish you continued success, good health and the best that life has to offer.

Sincerely,

Stanley Piecara - Principal

Drama Club

The Drama department has three major productions each year, including a drama, a musical, and a one-act play festival. Through these performances, students improve their self-expression and explore their interests in all aspects of the dramatic arts. Additionally, the drama club sponsors monthly coffee-houses in the cafeteria wherein students can share their enthusiasm for performance, poetry, comedy, and music in a relaxed setting. The club also provides other venues for theatrical and creative talent.

French Club

Bonjour! The French Club or le club francais is dedicated to promoting French. Our goal is to learn and employ French in areas of everyday life, and to have fun delving into and exploring French-speaking cultures. Through our French parties, we not only share French Snacks, but we also learn new and interesting things. We visit museums to foster curiosity and further familiarize ourselves with French history and art. Watching French movies gives us the opportunity to develop fluency in speaking, and the ability to use French to communicate. Each year, many of our members are also involved in the Nation French Competition. Vive la France!

Hi-Q

Each year some of the best students in the school are assembled on the Hi Q team. This year the team expects great success in their competitions. Returning members Chris DiPompeo, Shana Jalbert, and Matt Pelc experienced a very successful season last year but believe this year's team has the potential to do even better. The team would like to thank Ms. Bonder for all her time and effort, the faculty for their continued support, and especially the student body, for its wonderful support of the team throughout the year.

Ms. Bonder (advisor), Chris DiPompeo (Co-captain), Shana Jalbert (Co-captain), Katie Fox, Robert Leider, Melissa Ogg, Tripp Warner, Matt Pelc, Michelle Shuman, Josh Albert, and Ross Weidner (players). Mike Kowalski, Dan Peischl, and Jeff Leider (interns), and Henry Lai and Amy Yarnell (managers).

Interact

Interact is a philanthropic club sponsored by the Newtown Square Rotary. This year, under excellent leadership, we can proudly say we made a difference. Some of our activities included: participating in the Diabetes and AIDS Walks, a pumpkin booth at the first "Fall Fantastic", donating Thanksgiving dinners to seven families in our community, caroling at Fair Acres Geriatric Center, organizing a successful blanket/pillow drive for the earthquake victims in Turkey, visiting children in the hospital and participating in Daffodil Days for the American Cancer Society. The officers and members of Interact are truely some of Marple's finest.

National Honor Society

A child's smile, the joy of giving, self-discovery, connection with the outside world . . . this is the meaning of the National Honor Society. Members of the National Honor Society go to high school like every other teenager. They do their homework, they take their tests, they participate in sports and clubs . . . yet there is something different about these students. They want to be part of the bigger picture, the world beyond Marple Newtown. They are tutors, homework helpers, and volunteers. They are the ones who, ten years down the road, will be going the extra mile to make the world a better place.

Science Olympiad

The Science Olympiad tournaments are rigorous academic interscholastic competitions that consist of a series of individual and team events which students prepare for during the year. The competitions follow the format of popular board games, TV shows and athletic games. These challenging and motivational events are well balanced between the various science disciplines of biology, earth science, chemistry, physics, computers, and technology. There is also a balance between events requiring knowledge of science facts, concepts, processes, skills, and science applications.

Stage Crew

Stage Crew — the people who "do it in the dark, and in less than 30 seconds." Led by the talented President and Technical Director Dave Vottero, with assistance officers Dan "I'll kill for some Coke-a-Cola" Pelschl, the vertically-challenged Ross Weidner, and the organized Morgan Kraille the Stage Crew has reached new standards of excellence through the productions of Tom Jones and My Fair Lady. In both productions the Stage Crew created exquisite and remarkable sets, and worked together as a team under the guidance and support of Mr. "Shaft!" Winterbottom. We would like to thank Mr. Winterbottom for his guidance, support, and babysitting. All we do is in loving memory of Fetts. As Fetts would say, "Lets make theater magic."

Student Council Of The Millennium

This year's student council worked hard to instill the pride in Marple Newtown. We brought you birthday certificates on your birthday, recognized your outstanding achievements on the achievement train, and allowed you to show your class spirit during the ever so popular spirit week and spirit days. Student council would like to thank everyone who helped make this year one to remember. To the members of student council, you worked extremely hard this year, thanks for everything! Wake-up Hendry, Bacok!, Back to the history reps . . . , got any air-freshener John?, Hey Cor, let's play bingo, Laur, spirit week was all you baby!, the leaders formally known as the HAND, SAP?, Monday mornings were always fun, we couldn't have done it without Pinky and The Brain. As we waved goodbye to the era of Jehanian, we welcomed the new era of Massimo. With the leadership of Drum Major Ed Lee, Student Marching Instructor Justin Manno, President Pete Matt, and the rest of the officers, the Tiger Marching band paraded through the year. With their theme of "From Stage to Screen" there was magic in the Tiger band repertoire. Opening with the theme from Hook, followed by I Dreamed a Dream, and concluding with Back to the Future, the band set the field the stand with excitement. The year flew by with a great football season unity (bandies and cheerleaders, YEEEAH) and also a great concert season. We'd like to thank the seniors, and wish Mr. Massimo the best of luck in years to come.

Director: Mrs. Janet Thompson

The Marple Newtown Concert Choir finally grew past capacity and split into two groups. The new Women's Choir is a pleasant addition to the music department. Both choirs enjoyed a successful winter concert and the Mixed Choir prepared throughout the winter and spring months for this year's music festival in Washington D.C. This year the choir sent Amy Milligan, Katie Fox, Hahn Bak, and Erik Trimarelli to the 2000 District 12 Choir Festival! Both Erik Trimarelli and Katie Fox moved on to the Region 6 Choir Festival. Many thanks to Janet Thompson, our director and best wishes to the more than thirty seniors who are finishing their last year in the Marple Newtown Concert Choir!

The Door

When You Were Six Years Old,
The Door Was Too Big And Tall.
The Things Outside Would Scare You, Anything At All.
But Now The Door Is Open,
The Future Is Outside.
And The Little Child Inside You,
Sees A World Open Wide.

Dear Drew, We are so proud of you! Your determination is showing; continue working towards your goals and you will be successful. "There is no wrong way to do the right thing." Love, Mom & Dad

Drew Adams

Congrats, Johnny. You are truly one of a kind. Your compassion, understanding, and intelligence will take you far . . . not to mention your new tires! We feel so fortunate that you are our son. Your individuality and sense of self brings us much pride. We know the leader you are and predict that one day you will use those abilities to take the world by storm. We all love you so very much and wish you great challenge (and fun) in the years to come. Love, Mom, Dad, Emmy, Sara, Binet, Tucker, & Lindy

Greta Jee

Greta Jee

"You have the hands that will open up the door. You have the hopes this world is waiting for. You are my own, but you are so much more. You are tomorrow on the way." From "Child of Mine" by Bill Staines - Greta, I love you more than you may know and much more than words can say. At this time, I wish that you, yourself, may enjoy a portion of the pride and satisfaction I have felt in you, over the past seventeen years. May the days ahead bring you love, happiness, and fulfillment. Love, Dad

Dear Mikey, You have been a delightful and playful bundle of joy in our life. Now you have become a tall, handsome, and determined young man. You have always wanted to be on top of things, and you were always a little stubborn. Yet this has helped you as you have worked hard for your accomplishments. May your determination help you in your future goals. Congratulations! May God always be with you and bless you in your life ahead. With love always, Dad, Mom, & Shemy

Michael John

Jennifer Johnson

Jennifer, you brightened the world on the day you were born and brought love to our home. Caring has always been part of your life. You're sensitive nature and concern for others' feelings has made you a very special person. Graduation day is very important- a stepping stone to adulthood. We are so proud of the wonderful things you have already accomplished . . . And it's just the beginning. Most of all, you're always loved . . . and wished the very best. Our love and support are with you always. Love, Dad & Mom

Stacy Acey, We are so proud of you. You've grown from our "baby blue eyes" to a beautiful young woman. You dance with enthusiasm. Anything you focus on, you persist until you succeed. Thank you for babysitting. We all love you, Mom, Dad, Scott, Stevie, and Cher and Federico

Jeanine, Congratulations, you made it! We are proud of you; your hard work had finally paid off. We have made a lot of memories and there are more to come. We know you will be successful in the future. Remember we will always love you. Good luck Jahno! Love, us

Jeanine Sprangrud

Bud, I can't believe so many years have gone by. You are an adult now. There have been more "ups" than "downs" and we are so very proud you have achieved your goal. We love you very much and wish you great success in the future. Love, Mom, Ted, Mom-mom, Pop-pop and your brothers

Buddy Stallings

Stephen Sudhop

Dear Stephen, we have celebrated every event and milestone in your life. We have guided you through your first day at Loomis School to your Marple Newtown graduation. Now you begin a new journey to fulfill your vision for your life. Much love, health, happiness and prosperity. Mom and Dad

Look at me! I'm going to kindergarten! Confident and excited, ready to face the world. You were such an extraordinary kid and you've grown into a mature, caring, sensible young woman. Despite all of the challenges and heartaches, you have risen above it all. We are so proud!

Danielle Texeira

David Teres

Dear David, Poised on the threshold of manhood, you have strength, intelligence, humor and a touch of gentleness. We acknowledge the man you are becoming with great pride and love. Continue to reach for your goals as you always have but could you clean up your room before you leave for college? We wish you all that is good and wonderful in a life fulfilled with success and happiness. Love, Mom, Dad, Avi, and Adeena

Jamie Tomasetti

Dear Jamie, You have been a great joy in our lives throughout your school years. We are extremely proud of you and thank you for giving us a great accomplishment as parents. You reflection tells just how much success we have achieved together. Stay as you are!! Love, Mom and Dad

Dear Chris Congratulations! We are very proud of the person you have become. Always remember if you believe in yourself all things are possible, we will always be behind you and will always support you. May happiness follow you wherever life may lead you. Love Mom, Dad, Arty and Alexi

Christopher Topalidis

Narge Torosian

Congratulations Nareg on this happy occasion. We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. May God grant you wisdom and guidance in all your endeavors. Love, Susanna, Toros, Azek Torosians

Dear Erik, You are amazing! We are so proud of your academic achievements, musical ability, and accomplishments in swimming, and other school activities. We admire how you have grown to be a truly responsible and self-reliant young man. Because of your continued determination to succeed, we are confident that you will attain all of your goals. Your values and strong character will make all of your dreams a reality. Love, Mom, Dad and Christa

Erik Trimarelli

Congratulations Melanie! We are very proud of you and wish you a healthy, very happy and successful future! We will always be here for you. We love you—Mom, Dad, Tiffany

Melanie Turner

Sarah Underwood

Sarah, We are proud of the way you have grown into a young woman committed to integrity in every area of your life. We look forward with excitement to watching your life unfold. With our love and prayers, Dad and Mom

Stavros Vasiliadis

It has been great watching you grow into the fine young man you are now. Remember, follow your dreams-they will come true. "Grammata"-like your father has been telling you in all your days of school. Have fun and always be happy. We are so proud of you and we love you very much. Love always, Mom, Dad, Erini and Maria

Maria Vega Yanez

We hope that your year at Marple Newtown was a great experience for you. We are very proud of you and love you dearly. May you keep these memories all your life! Love your American Family, Bill, Nancy, Vicki, Mike, and Kate

Dear Dan, How can we be celebrating your high school graduation when only yesterday we were amazed at the tiny precious gift God had just blessed us with? From measuring your little forearm with my finger to asking you to reach something on a high shelf we have had much joy watching you grow into such a fine young man. Thank you for this privilege. We are very proud of who and what you are. Seize each day as an opportunity to do good to others and to follow your dreams. Don't forget who you are doing it for and He will bless you. We're always here for you. Now go for it Dan the MAN!!!!!! Love, Mom, Dad, Faith, Jennifer, Matt, and Amy

Daniel Videon

David Vottero

Dear David, from the moment you were born, you have been a tremendous source of pride to us, as we have watched you from into an amazing young man. Always remember to follow your dreams, David, for your dreams will bring you happiness. Remain positive, and work at something you enjoy and that is worthy of your time and talent. God gave you many gifts-share them with the world, especially your beautiful smile. Thank you, our precious son, for bringing us more joy and happiness than any parent could ever imagine. We love you always and forever, Mom and Dad

Tripp, We are so very proud of the fine young man you've become. You've worked hard the past 17 years, and now your milestones in the classroom and on the field are the result of your relentless determination and perseverance. Follow your dreams and be true to yourself. Our love and home is yours forever. We'll miss you!!! Love, Mom, Dad, T.J., and Will

Robert Warner III

Brian-Congratulations! Your school years have been a journey and how blessed we feel to have traveled along with you. Class Officers

To the Always Admirable Class of 2000,

The sand in the hourglass is coming down faster than ever, and there isn't much left of it. Soon our high school lives will be non-existent, and we will move on to new and better things. We all hold different ambitions and will find ourselves following different and separate roads in order to fulfill our dreams. It saddens me, like it saddens you, to know that we will have to leave behind this "genuine family" that has been created here throughout the years. I could never put into words how much you guys mean to me and to each other. We've helped and seen one another grow and are more than eager to know where each of our "roads" will lead us. Our "family" will break-up but will be given the opportunity to shine and make a difference in this world. This is the ultimate challenge I leave with you. I'm confident that you will not let me down.

My fellow officers: Shar- my dedicated "salami." Thank you for all the time and effort you put in to make the past years successful. I'll probably never meet anyone as dedicated and persevering as you. Val- my right-hand woman in crime. Your enthusiasm, creativity, and unrelenting optimism are undoubtedly appreciated. Thanks for everything Boo Boo. Darr- the one and only Coochdog. Thanks for putting up with me, but I think it helped you in the end. You handle money like none other and have my utmost respect. But don't think you have gotten rid of me yet! Laur- you know how much you mean to me and everyone else. I'm glad I wasn't the only "crazy one." Thanks for everything. Monge and Stavros- I missed you guys and will cherish the memories we had together . . thank you. Mr. Andrews and Ms. Yannacone-my heroes. We couldn't have done it without you. Thanks for putting up with us through the years. You both defiely exceeded our expectations, and I hope we came close to doing the same for you.

Finally, I would like to sincerely thank the class for giving me the opportunity to serve as your president. I hope that met your expectations. It's truly been fun and exciting (a little stressful as well). We finally made it! I love each and ery one of you and wish you the best of luck in the future. Wherever you may go and whatever you may do, always member that you were once and always will be a Marple Newtown Tiger. P.S. I better see everyone at the re-ions!!!

Your Proud President,
Korken Iskenderian

It's hard to believe that our four years here together are coming to a close. We've been through so much together, and the memories we've shared will remain in our hearts forever. It has been an honor serving as vice-president for such a distinguished class. I would like to thank everyone for the effort and dedication that you have put into our class. We finally won spirit week!! Korken, Darren, and Sharon: It has been an unforgettable experience working with all of you. Thanks. Mr. Andrews and Miss Yannacone, thank you for your time and support. We couldn't have done it without you! To the class of 2000: "Don't go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail." May all of your dreams come true! Good Luck!

Love always,
Valerie Lubar

It's amazing to think we're seniors, and I'm still alive! I was almost sure I would have had at least one heart attack by now. Serving as your secretary for the past three years has taught me many valuable lessons . . . none of which I can remember now, but I know it has! Korks- keep on dancing to the tune of your dreams because one day you'll end up right where you want to be. Honey Heffer- awwww . . . you're cute! Val- your friendship has always been valued. And to our awe-inspiring advisors- Yoda's got nothing on you! Let's go double "O!"

With fondest memories,
Sharon Yeroushalmi

We've come to a point in time where I can definitely say that I have noticed a change in all of us. We've been through "almost" everything. Now we're all grown and have our futures to look forward to. To Val and Sharon: You both helped me keep organized and always put smiles on my face. To my boy Korken: If it weren't for you, I wouldn't have got anything done. You pushed me to my limits and made me enjoy the times when we would be at long meetings. Mr. Andrews and Ms. Yannacone: We surely could not have been as successful without the both of you. Thanks for the inspiration. I want to wish everyone the best in college and in life.

Yours Truly,
Darren Heffer

"To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and to endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty; to leave the world a bit better whether by healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is to have succeeded". -Ralph Waldo Emerson

We can dance if we want to, we can leave your friends behind 'cause your friends don't dance and if they don't dance well they're no friends of mine. Say, we can go where we want to, a place that they will never find and we can act like we come from out of this world leave the real one far behind To all my friends (you know who you are): STAY IN TOUCH!!

Nate Gach

In 18 years I've learned this: Take walks without a destination. Read children's books. Don't watch the news too often. Never argue with a woman. Visit art museums. Garden. Love your siblings. Always have a pen and paper. Relax. Take frequent naps. Daydream. Own a cat. Cook or marry someone who can. Swim in the ocean. Feed ducks. Climb a mountain. Be passionate about anything. Okay, just one inside joke: iced cappuccino maker.

Allyson Gant

Graduation, in the words of Trent Reznor, "Seems like salvation." Stacey - I won't forget your sugar highs or spirit. Karen, you made gym fun. Thanks to all my walking buddies. Shana Jalbert

Summing up four years in seventy-five words is, of course, impossible. I won't try. But to all the people who I really, truly love, (you know who you are) I can't even express my gratitude. And, we're not done yet . . . To steal a quote: "The woods are lovely dark and deep, But I have promises to keep, And miles to go before I sleep, And miles to go before I sleep." ~Robert Frost

Joel James

Hey, Hey, Hey, well, we're finally out. Good luck to all of you, where ever you guys go. Have parties, stay cool, and remember all of the times we had at Marple. Hey, Doc, remember all of the great times homeroom 123 gave you. You know we were you favorite class of the day. Well, see all of you later, and remember, there is only one Joel James

"All existence fades to a being with my soul and memories . . . Eventually all things fade into one, and a river runs through it. The river was cut by the world's great flood and runs over rocks from the basement of time. On some of the rocks are timeless raindrops. Under the rocks are the words, and some of the words are theirs."

Jenn Johnson

Four Years has taught me many things. One being that you can't stop loving a person. You only forget the love that you had (another: topics for lunch "conversation"). I love you Keith. Thank you to those that remained my true friend; you know who you are. I can never express enough gratitude. And for all the endless faces I may never see again- Carpe Diem. Seize the day. Make your lives extraordinary.

It started out as a rugged Quest. But on this Journey through High School, milestones were stumbled on- milestones that would mold me. People were encountered- people who would become second family to me, and perhaps even more. Blood was left on the trail to get here; and here I am on the verge of my destination with something so distant from what I'd awaited; and it changed me utterly. For that I am grateful.

Lisa Kowalek

Tammy- Hawaii!! movies, night swims, Hershey park, shore, girl talks, New Years 2000! Moments

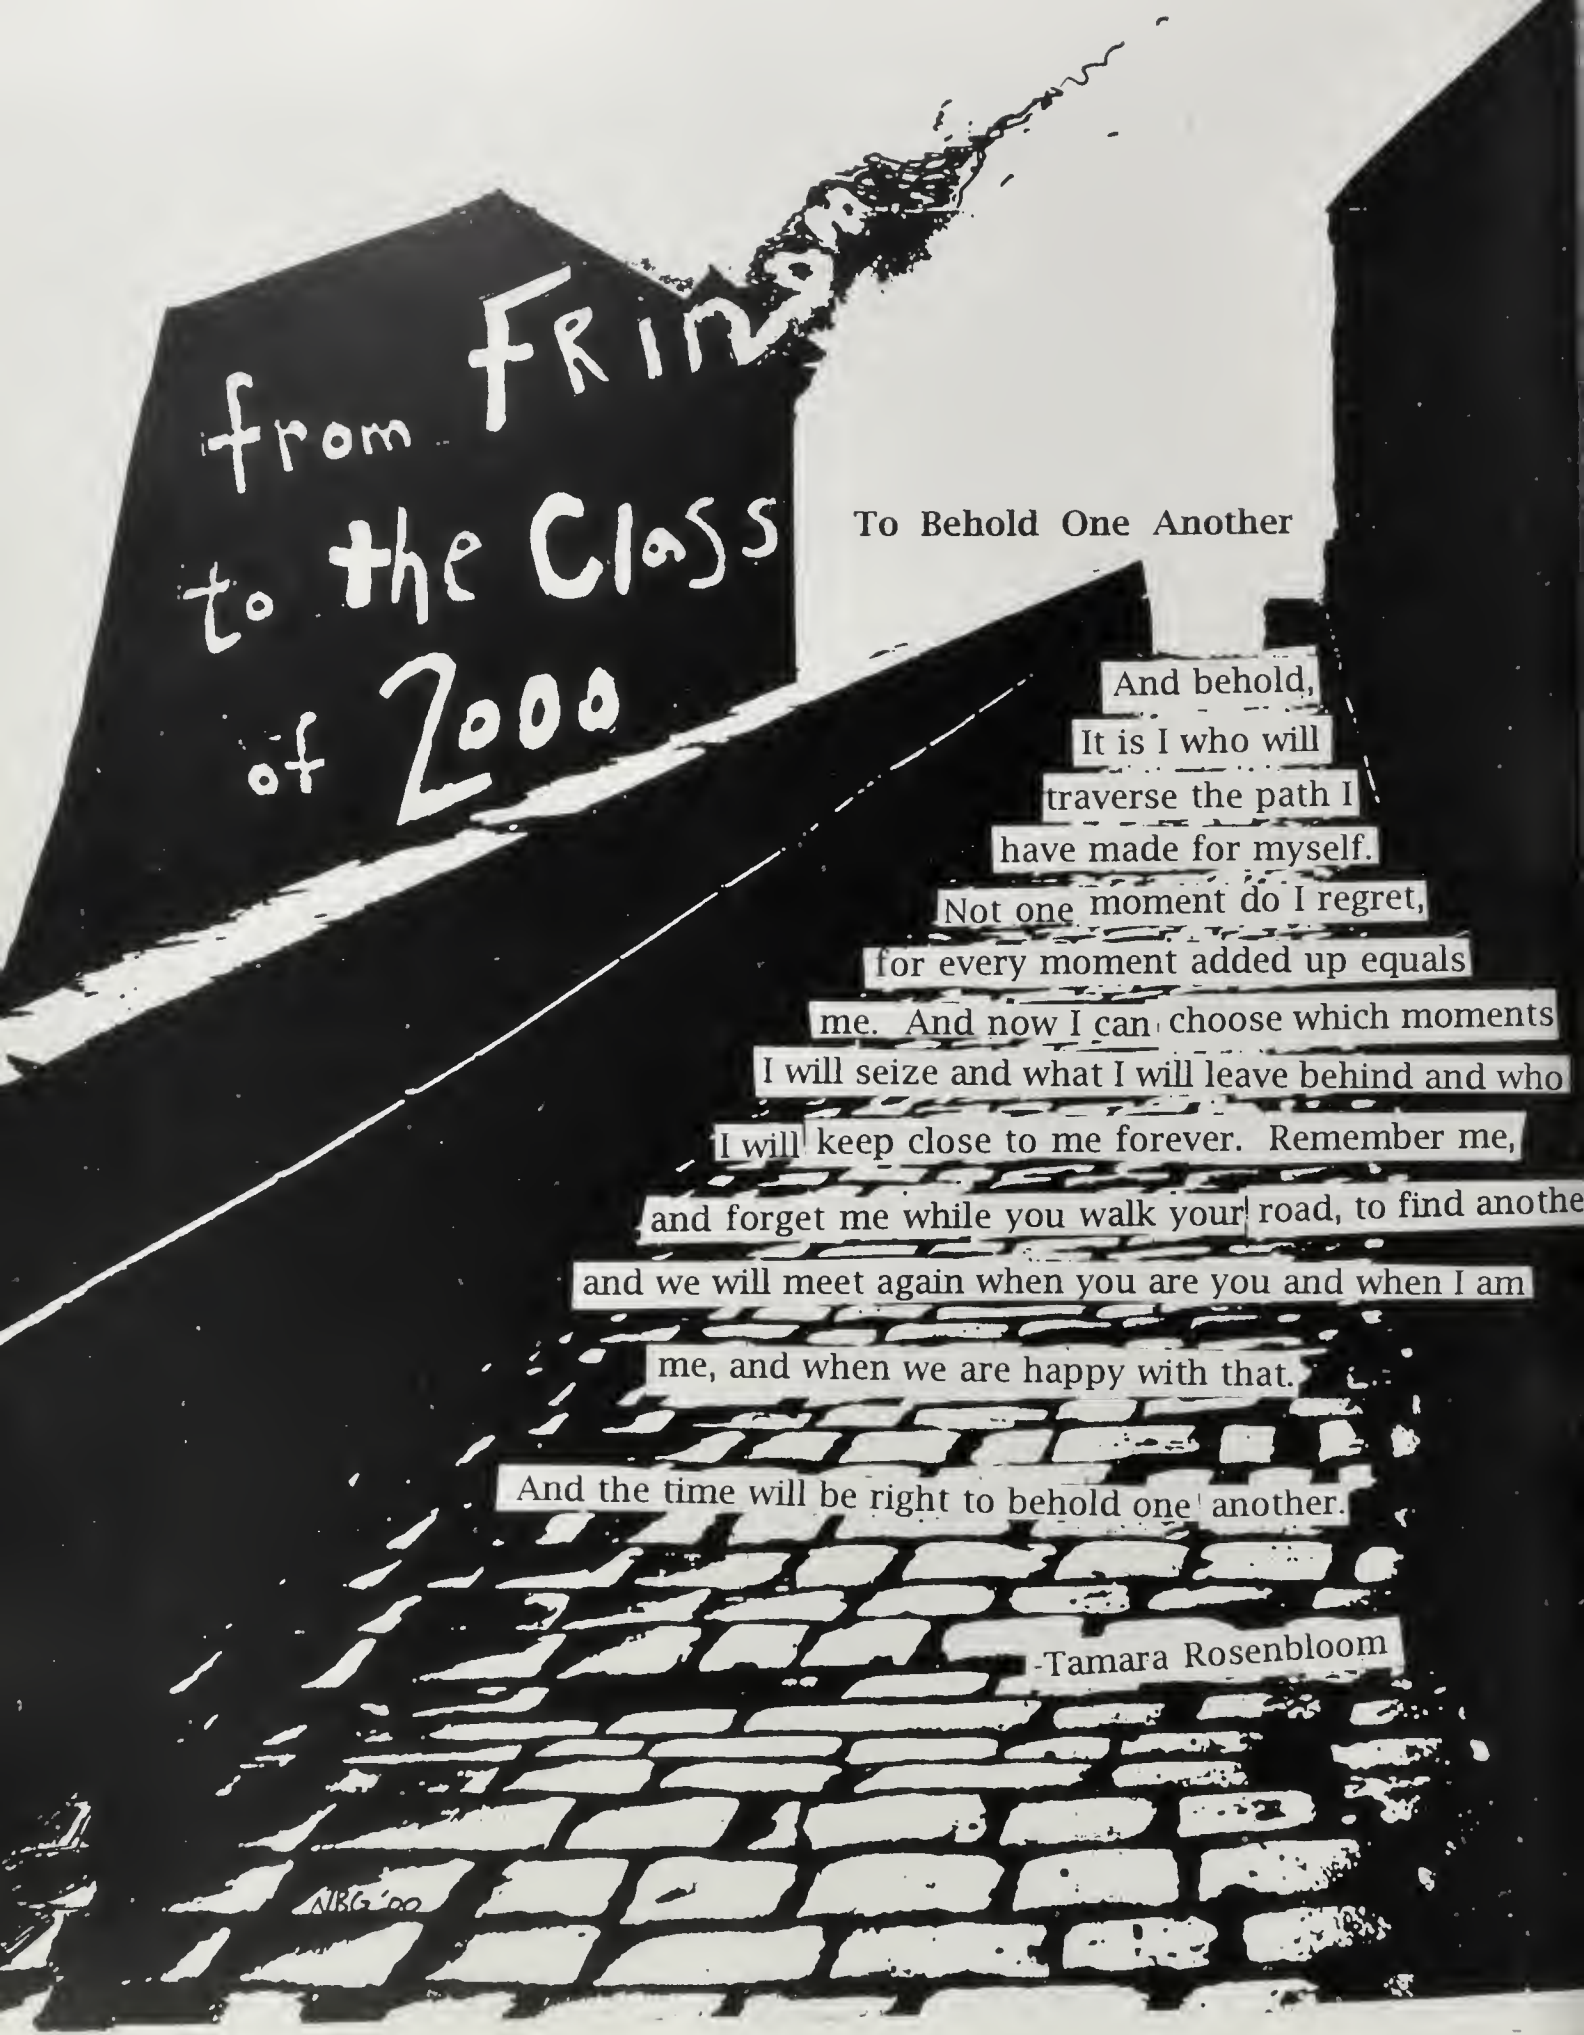
TIGER



To Behold One Another

And behold,
It is I who will traverse the path I have made for myself.
Not one moment do I regret, for every moment added up equals me. And now I can choose which moments
I will seize and what I will leave behind and who I will keep close to me forever. Remember me, and forget me while you walk your road, to find anothe and we will meet again when you are you and when I am me, and when we are happy with that.

And the time will be right to behold one another.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide;
and though we cannot see you, you are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same;
but as God calls us one by one, THE CHAIN will link again.

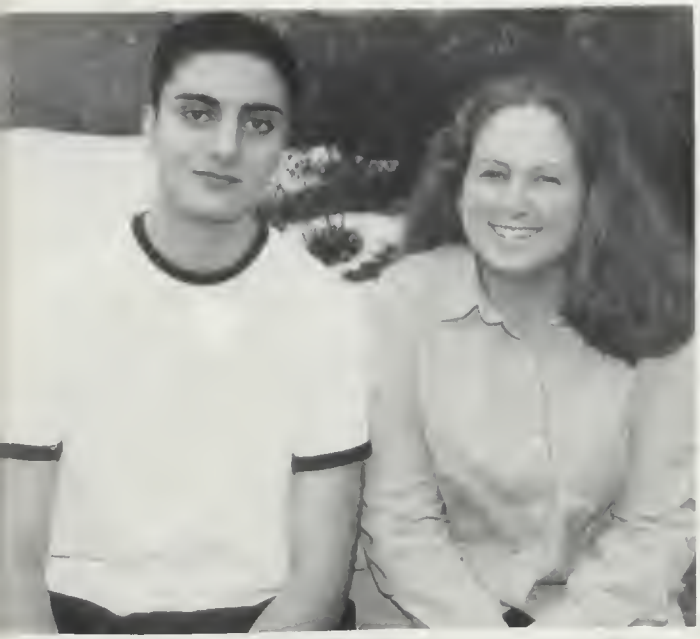
Presenting The 1999-2000 Yearbook Staff . . .

Co-Editors in Chief: Greta Jee and Shana Jalbert

The 1999-2000 Yearbook Staff



Senior Editors: Korken Iskenderian and Laurie Backall

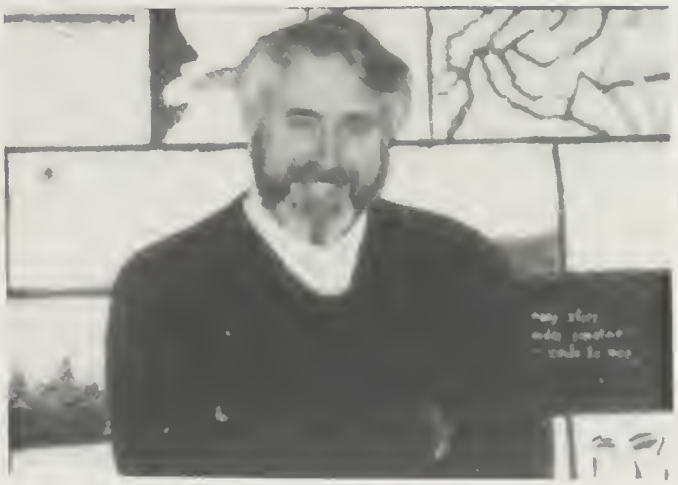
Sports Editors: Dave Liou and Larissa Anderson

The editors would like to give a special thanks to:
Julie Harris
Henry Lai
Laura Mccomb
Bob Johnson
Mrs. Johnson
Mr. Williams
Without them this yearbook would never have happened!

Arts Editor: Mindy Kang

Art and Cover Design were done by Mr. Winterbottom and Pete Matt.

Business Editor: Rachel Jaffe



Advisor: Mr. Williams

Junior Editors: Whitney Rubel and Christine Nigro

From The Editors . . .

Looking back on this year, I know I can truly say I will never look at a yearbook, or any publication for the matter, in the same way. Until I began this job, I never knew what I was getting myself into, but despite all my complaining, I think that this crazy experience has taught me quite a bit. Among other things, I have learned to rely on other people, each of whom have proved worthy of my trust. Mr. Williams, thanks for the ideas, the mailings, sticking around after school, and generally helping out. Bob, thanks for some fabulous photography and a whole lot of flexibility. Whitney and Christine, you guys got stuck with the odd jobs, thanks a lot! And good luck next year (hehe). Dave and Larissa, you two were amazingly reliable, and it's a good thing too for all I knew about the sports pages. Mindy, you did a great job, babe, and thanks for all that odd food you brought over that one day. I enjoyed it. Julie and Henry our un-named staff members, you two deserve thanks for your constant cheerfulness and help. Peter Matt, thanks for the rockin cover. Korken, you sure spent a lot of time at my house, although I'm not sure whether you worked as often as you made loud bird noises, but hey, you made things fun. Laurie, without you, this yearbook never would have happened, thanks for all the work you did, darling. Rachel, although we didn't actually work together too often, thanks for everything you have done. And finally, Greta, you know I could never have survived this without ya. Thanks for keeping me from going mad . . . hehe, from the day we began organizing the yearbook room (that sure lasted long) you were the practical (or should I say sane) one. So, thanks for putting up with me, my dear. I love ya! We'll have to continue the Garden China tradition even without the pretense of doing work. To everyone else on the yearbook staff, thanks for your help!

Sincerely,
Shana Jalbert
Co-Editor in Chief

Many people think that at the end of the year, a yearbook magically appears for all to buy and criticize. I, too, was once oblivious to the work and responsibility it takes to make a yearbook. Although it is in many ways a thankless job, I walk away from yearbook with patience, dedication, and motivation; all skills I acquired as co-editor in chief. The staff is many ways like an artist . . . sculpting this book with our two hands. Now I'd like to make a couple shout-outs to the people that deserve them. First, a thousand thank you's to my man Bob Johnston for dealing with the chaos that is the yearbook staff. Thanks to Mr. Thom Williams for all those late afternoons you stayed with us and that time you came to Shana's. A mound of thank you's to our junior editor's Whitney and Christine. You guys did a fabulous job and I wish you the best of luck next year. Thank you to Mindy "Min-Min" Kang for her excellent art editing. Thank you to Julie Harris for being an honorary member of the yearbook staff. Thank you to Henry Lai, whom without we would not have such an awesome baby picture background. Thank you to Korken, who could never quite learn how to crop. Thanks to Laurie Backall for doing all the work Shana and I didn't feel like doing. Thank you to Dave and Larissa . . . . "OH yeah". My boundless gratitude to Shana for being the brains of this operation and for not hating me. Always remember Casey Casem, "Ga-china", "oh my god, don't eat that kid!" . . . and who can forget "baby fish mouth"? Thank you to the Jalbert's for letting us explode all over your house each deadline! Finally, thanks to the English Department for putting all their T.V.'s and equipment in the yearbook room. Really, we didn't mind at all not being able to move around in an already closet-like room. Last but not least, thanks to Marpie who has been a constant source of inspiration, ever since the day we found him in an old box last summer. And what about Marla Hooch? . . . what a hitter. To the Class of 2000, in the words of Paul Simon: "A time it was and what a time it was . . . a time of innocence, a time of confidences. Long ago it must be, I have a photograph. Preserve your memories, they're all that's left you . . ."

Best,

Well here we are at last, and what do you know? The impossible has happened. We made a yearbook! Thank you to each and every person who helped out (you know who you are), even a minute of your time made our job easier. Grets and Shana-bum, thanks for your help along the way and if you ever want to have another mental breakdown . . . call me. I will forever treasure the countless (and sleepless) hours spent at my second home, the Jalbert's. Laura, due to your mad typing skills the deadline was actually finished. You were always there to lend a helping hand, and I greatly appreciate it. To my co-senior editor, what can I say? We both know that I wouldn't have survived the past year without your help, support and friendship. Thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything you've done. To next year's staff, learn to appreciate each other and good luck. You'll need it. To my friends and family, you have not only put up with me this year, but continually gave me your love and support. I will be forever grateful to each and every one of you. Congratulations to the class of 2000. May each of you look back on this year with a smile and a mind full of memories. Best wishes of happiness to you all!

With all of my love,
Laurie Backall
